

ENQA WORKSHOP ON QUALITY ASSURANCE OF STUDENT-CENTRED LEARNING AND THE ROLE OF STUDENTS IN ASSESSING IT

Glasgow, 10-11 December 2018

PROGRAMME

Day I – Focus on assessing SCL

13.00 Registrations and welcome coffee and tea

13.30 Opening by the host

Rowena Pelik, QAA Scotland

Introduction to ENQA and the workshop

Maria Kelo, ENQA

14.00 Key-note speech: The concept of student-centred learning and its relation to student engagement

Mark Huxham, Edinburgh Napier University

15.00 Coffee break

15.30 How do institutions address student-centred learning and its QA – findings from EUA studies

Tia Loukkola, EUA

16.15 Students and student-centred learning – what it means for us and what we expect of it?

Adam Gajek, ESU

17.00 Addressing SCL through external quality assurance – as easy as we thought?

Rikke Warming, Danish Accreditation Institution

17.45 Drinks reception

19.00 End of Day I

Day II – From evaluating SCL to student engagement

9.15 How can competence-based internal QA support SCL and student engagement?

Karl Ledermueller, Vienna University of Economics and Business

10.00 Quality Enhancement in focus: Building on review outcomes to improve the student experience

Debra MacFarlane, QAA Scotland

10.45 Coffee

11.10 Engagement of students in QA – how to make the most out of it (an interactive working session)

Adam Gajek, ESU

Matt Adie, University of Stirling

Responses and experiences from the participants

13.00 Closure of the workshop and farewell lunch