

External review of the Agency for the Quality of the Basque University System (Unibasq) by the European Association for Quality Assurance in Higher Education (ENQA)

Annex I: TERMS OF REFERENCE

September 2013

1. Background and Context

The Agency for the Quality of the Basque University System (Unibasq – Agencia de Evaluación de la Calidad y Acreditación del Sistema Universitario Vasco) is a state owned body governed by private law attached to the Basque Government's department responsible for universities. Its objective is the evaluation, accreditation and certification of quality in the area of the Basque University System, while taking the Spanish and international framework into account.

The Agency, formerly called UNIQUAL, was created under Article 79 of Law 3/2004 on the Basque University System. The Administrative Board of the Agency was formed in April 2005 and approved the statutes of the Agency which were published in June 2006. In the year 2009, a process of changes started in the Agency in order to adapt its statutes to the European Criteria and Directives for quality assurance agencies. As a result the Statutes of the Agency were changed and the new name of Unibasq was adopted. Following these changes, the Act 13/2012 of 28 June 2012 governing Unibasq – the Agency for the Quality of the Basque University System was published on the 4th of July of 2012.

Unibasq is applying for the first time for ENQA membership and is already familiar with the European Standards and Guidelines.

2. Purpose and Scope of the Evaluation

This is a type A review, as defined in the Guidelines for external reviews of quality assurance agencies in the European Higher Education Area. It will evaluate the way in which and to what extent Unibasq fulfils the criteria for the ENQA membership and thus the Standards and Guidelines for Quality Assurance in the European Higher Education Area (ESG). Consequently, the review will also provide information to the ENQA Board to aid its consideration of whether Unibasq should be accepted as Full Member of ENQA. The review panel is not expected, however, to make any judgements as regards granting Full Membership.

3. The Review Process

The process is designed in the light of the Guidelines for external reviews of quality assurance agencies in the European Higher Education Area.

The evaluation procedure consists of the following steps:

- Formulation of the Terms of Reference and protocol for the review;
- Nomination and appointment of the review panel;
- Self-evaluation by Unibasq including the preparation of a self-evaluation report;
- A site visit by the review panel to Unibasq;
- Preparation and completion of the final evaluation report by the review panel;

- Scrutiny of the final evaluation report by the Review Committee of the ENQA Board;
- Analysis of the scrutiny by the ENQA Board and their decision regarding ENQA membership;
- Follow-up of the panel's and/or ENQA Board's recommendations by the agency.

3.1 Nomination and appointment of the review team members

The review panel consists of five members: four external reviewers (one or two quality assurance experts, representative(s) of higher education institutions, student member) and a review secretary. Three of the reviewers (including the review secretary) are nominated by the ENQA Board on the basis of proposals submitted to ENQA by the national agencies, and are drawn from senior serving members of Board/Council or staff of ENQA member agencies. The fourth external reviewer is drawn from a nomination provided by the European University Association (EUA). The nomination of the student member is asked from the European Students' Union (ESU). One of the panel members serves as the chair of the review.

Current members of the ENQA Board are not eligible to serve as reviewers.

ENQA will provide Unibasq with the list of suggested experts with their respective curriculum vitae to establish that there are no known conflicts of interest. The experts will have to sign a non-conflict of interest statement as regards the Unibasq review.

3.2 Self-evaluation by Unibasq, including the preparation of a self-evaluation report

Unibasq is responsible for the execution and organisation of its own self-evaluation process and shall take into account the following guidance:

- The report is well-structured, concise and comprehensively prepared. It clearly demonstrates the extent to which Unibasq fulfils its tasks of external quality assurance and meets the criteria for the ENQA membership and thus the ESG. The report is submitted to the review panel a minimum of eight weeks prior to the site visit.

3.3 A Site Visit by the Review Panel

Unibasq will draw up a draft proposal of schedule of the site visit to be submitted to the review panel two months before the planned dates of the visit. The approved schedule shall be given to Unibasq at least one month before the dates of the visit, in order to properly organise the requested interviews.

The report will take into account the purpose and scope of the evaluation as defined under article 2. It will also provide a clear rationale for its findings with regards to each ENQA membership criteria. A draft will be submitted for comment to Unibasq by mid-April 2014, for comment on factual accuracy. If Unibasq chooses to provide a statement in reference to the draft report it will be submitted to the chair of the review panel within two weeks after the receipt of the draft report. Thereafter the review panel will take into account the statement by Unibasq, finalise the document and submit it to Unibasq and ENQA.

The report is to be finalised by May 2014 and will not exceed 40 pages in length.
